

Exclusion of liability

The participant takes part in our event at his own risk. He bears sole civil and criminal responsibility for all damage caused by him or the motorcycle he uses, unless an exclusion of liability is agreed here. In particular, the participant is liable to the organizer for the motorcycle and any personal injury, property damage and financial loss associated with it. The participant releases the organizer from any third-party claims against the organizer for compensation for damage caused by the participant upon first request. The participant assumes unlimited liability for damage to the motorcycle used by the participant caused by his own or another person's fault, due to an accident or improper handling, or caused by the participant not following the instructions of the organizer's employees. With his signature, the participant declares that he waives any claims of any kind for damages arising in connection with the event, in particular against the organizer, the road construction authority and other persons associated with the organization of the event and against the vicarious agents and employees of all the aforementioned persons and bodies, except for damages resulting from injury to life, body or health that are based on an intentional or negligent breach of duty - including by a legal representative or a vicarious agent of the group of persons released from liability - and except for other damages that are based on an intentional or grossly negligent breach of duty - including by a legal representative or a vicarious agent of the group of persons released from liability. The participant waives any claims of any kind against the other participants (drivers, passengers), their assistants, the owners or holders of the motorcycles for damages arising in connection with the event, except for damages resulting from injury to life, body or health that are based on an intentional or negligent breach of duty - including by a legal representative or vicarious agent of the group of people released from liability - and except for other damages that are based on an intentional or grossly negligent breach of duty - including by a legal representative or vicarious agent of the group of people released from liability. However, the exclusion of liability does not cover claims against the statutory liability insurance and accident insurance of the person causing the damage for claims covered by these insurances. The exclusion of liability becomes effective for all parties involved upon the signature of the participant. It applies to claims for any legal reason, in particular both for claims for damages arising from contractual and non-contractual liability and also for claims arising from tort.

Implied exclusions of liability remain unaffected by the above exclusion of liability clause. The participant also assures that he or she has no physical disabilities and is not under the influence of alcohol, drugs or medication that could affect his or her ability to drive in any way. The particular risk to people with heart problems and high blood pressure is expressly pointed out. In this respect, the STVO also applies.

Participation in the event without first submitting the exclusion of liability is not possible. I have taken note of the above exclusion of liability and I agree to the conditions.
